

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF CHICAGO

RAHM EMANUEL
MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Chicago is recognized as a hub for medical study, research, and treatment and home to a number of world-class educational institutions, professional organizations and dedicated personnel; and

WHEREAS, nurses, allied health professionals, support staff, financial services personnel, administration, physicians, and volunteers are all integral parts of the health care delivery team; and

WHEREAS, health care workers fortify the many professions within health care by advocating for patients and families, serving diverse communities with compassion, and improving patient care and physician collaboration through evidence-based practice; and

WHEREAS, the health care field will always need dedicated workers who can demonstrate great skill and confidence in caring for patients; and

WHEREAS, health care employees and volunteers support and strengthen the greater community's commitment to healthcare, and expanding Chicago's reputation for excellence in medicine; and

WHEREAS, the more than 150 hospitals and health care organizations that serve as members of the Metropolitan Chicago Healthcare Council wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to health care workers for their ongoing commitment and invaluable contributions to the health and welfare of the people of the City of Chicago:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RAHM EMANUEL, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO, do hereby proclaim May 13, 2015 to be HEALTH CARE WORKERS DAY IN CHICAGO and encourage all Chicagoans to recognize the enduring dedication, contributions, and achievements of our health care workers.

Dated this 10th day of April, 2015.
