

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the individuals who comprise the health care organizations in Cook County are dedicated to providing quality care for their communities; and

WHEREAS, each member of the health care team – nurses, allied health professionals, support staff, financial services personnel, administration, physicians and volunteers – serves as a vital component in providing the very best health care available; and

WHEREAS, in order for communities throughout Cook County to thrive, talented and conscientious health care workers and organizations are absolutely necessary; and

WHEREAS, the collective contribution of health care professionals strengthens the very social fabric of the communities in Cook County; and

WHEREAS, health care work is some of the most strenuous and sophisticated work being provided to communities today in Cook County; and

WHEREAS, health care work requires strength, compassion and humanity from those individuals providing it; and

WHEREAS, to an extent, the quality of a society is measured by the quality of its health care; the quality of health care provided by health care providers and organizations throughout Cook County is outstanding; and

WHEREAS, the Cook County community of health care organizations and hospitals wishes to express its sincere appreciation to its health care workers for their unwavering commitment to providing the best health care possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that I, Toni Preckwinkle, President of the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, do hereby recognize May 3, 2015 as “Health Care Worker Appreciation Day in Cook County,” and do express my gratitude to all the health care workers who continue to contribute to the wellness of those who live in our County.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Toni Preckwinkle'.

TONI PRECKWINKLE, President
Cook County Board of Commissioners